

Corporate Turnaround, Inc.
c/o: Adam Lang

Dear Adam:

I would like to share with you my experience with Corporate Turnaround and the fantastic work they have done for my company. In 2008, when the economy went south across most of the United States, my company found itself in a difficult position for a number of reasons. I have had my business in the same location for over 16 years, so it is not as if I was the "new kid" on the block. I had recently went through a divorce and I had employees unfortunately stealing money from the clinic. It was a difficult time to say the least, and for the first time in 16 years, I found myself in the position of being unable to pay some of my bills for the clinic. I was not sure what to do, as this was brand new for me and quite frankly a bit embarrassing as I pride myself in being successful and hard working.

I heard of the company, Corporate Turnaround through an email I believe. It was difficult to call them as I was in a predicament and did not know what to do. Finally after a day of particular frustration, I picked up the phone and called Corporate Turnaround and let me tell you, it was the best decision I could possibly make at the time. My advocate, Adam was calm, professional and courteous at all times. I was thoroughly impressed with the professionalism that everyone at Corporate Turnaround displayed to me throughout this ordeal. Essentially, they were able to take $65,000 worth of debt and set up a payment arrangement with different companies to settle for $34,000. I was able to pay that amount off over the next 3 years and I am thrilled to say that as of today I am free and clear thanks to the wonderful work that Corporate Turnaround is capable of doing. I would wholeheartedly recommend this company to anyone who is having a difficult time with their business.

Thank you again Adam and everyone at Corporate Turnaround!

Sincerely,
